END OF SALE

Next Sale October 2019 CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Neither the auctioneers or any of their servants shall be in any way responsible or accountable for any damage or loss caused by any accident during the event.

2. The highest bidder shall be the purchaser and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders the auctioneers shall adjudicate and his decision shall be final. No person to advance a less sum than shall be made by the auctioneer, or to retract his or her bidding. The onus is on the bidder to make sure their bids are being accepted by the auctioneer.

3. The auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw, consolidate or alter any of the lots.

4. Vendors may not bid directly or indirectly by themselves or through an agent other than the auctioneer for his or her own lots. Auction bidding agreement act 1927.

5. The buyer will be bidding for any lot be deemed

a) to be satisfied as to its authenticity and condition and

b) to purchase with note of all (if any) defects with no right to reject the goods after the purchase because of any defect or failure in description or condition.

6. a) Upon the fall of the hammer all risk passes to the buyer (who should arrange any insurance if necessary). The duty of the auctioneer and/or the vendor to deliver lots shall be deemed to have been fulfilled when the hammer falls, even if the lot is subsequently damaged or if any part thereof is lost.

b) Property in each lot shall not be passed to the buyer until all obligations imposed in these conditions have been implemented, it being understood that payment by cheque will not be deemed to have been made until the cheque has been honoured.

7. Full payment is to be made on the day of the sale. No lots are to be removed from the sale room until full payment has been received.
